15. Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule The revision is necessary to reflect current administrative practices of the VHRP. The current rule reflects outdated services the Department no longer provides.
16. Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) annually estimates Fair Market Rents, as defined in 24 CFR 888.113. The VHRP uses HUD Fair Market rent values that are regulated and funded by the GPD program. Since guidance and regulations for this program change frequently, it is vital that the rules under chapter VA 13 reflect the most current USDVA regulations and directives. The long range implications of implementing the rule will keep the the practices current with federal regulations.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Fiscal Estimate & Economic Impact Analysis

The USDVA's GPD program is the VA's largest transitional housing program for veterans experiencing homelessness and is permanently authorized under Public Law 109-461 and governed under 38 C.F.R. part 61. Since 1994, the GPD Program has awarded funding to organizations to provide transitional housing with wraparound supportive services to assist vulnerable veterans move into permanent housing. VHRP is funded largely by the US Department of Veterans Affairs (USDVA) GPD program.
